

Biography

Fernando Nicolás Puiggarí holds a Master Degree in Rural Engineering from the Polytechnic University of Madrid. He has an extensive professional career of more than 30 years linked to international projects, both in the public and private sectors.

Since April 2012, he holds the position of International Director at Administrador de Infraestructuras Ferroviarias (ADIF). He is a member of the Board of Directors of the international partnership which builds and operates the high-speed train between Medina and Mecca in Saudi Arabia.