

About

Ana Cristina Dourado currently the CEO of Fertagus, the Barraqueiro rail company, operating public transport services throughout the North-South Line, crossing the Tagus Bridge.

Ana Cristina Dourado has a degree in Economics from Instituto Superior de Economia de Lisboa, Portugal(1981) and a Master of Science (MSC) in Information Management, University of Sheffield (1993)e INETI.

She has worked in the transport sector since 1979, having performed technical functions fundamentally linked to operational planning in several companies in Rodoviária Nacional, until 1995.

In 1996 she integrates the Barraqueiro team, where she had the opportunity to work in many different projects.

1998 – 2003 Board Member of TST - Bus company operating in the south bank of Tagus river

2009 – 2012 Board Member of Prometro - operating company of Metro do Porto

Apart from her position as CEO of Fertagus, where she has been since 1998, she accumulates the position of CEO of MTS, a Light rail company operating public services in Almada and Seixal and since 2021 as Managing Director of Vimeca , a bus company operating in the NW of Metropolitan Lisbon Area.