

Biography

Maria de Fátima Teles is currently an Executive Director of Operations and Commercial at the Public Company of Portuguese Railway Services.

Her professional experience is in the logistics/rail passengers transportation sector for over two decades.

She graduated in Management at the Faculty of Economics of University of Porto, completed a Postgraduation in Financial Analysis and a Master in Management at Atlântico Business School.

In 2008, she received her Master's Degree in Transports from Faculty of Engineering of University of Porto where she is also currently taking a Ph.D. in the Doctoral Program of Transport Systems.

She has published some papers in international peer-reviewed journals concerning the sustainability of transport.